TO REGISTRATION STATEMENT
Under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS: A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements; or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances, by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. This form shall be filed in duplicate for each foreign principal named in the registration statement and must be signed by or on behalf of the registrant.

Name of Registrant	Name of Foreign Principal
United States-Japan Trade Council	Japan Trade Promotion Office, on behalf of the Japanese government.

Check Appropriate Boxes:

- ☐ The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach two copies of the contract to this exhibit.
- ☒ There is no formal written contract between the registrant and foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach two copies of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.
- ☐ The agreement or understanding between the registrant and foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and the expenses, if any, to be received.
4. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

The Council will perform economic research, legislative analysis and carry out public relations activities in furtherance of U. S.-Japan trade, in the interest of Japan.

5. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

The Council will observe and report on activities of the United States Congress and Executive Agencies affecting U. S.-Japan trade; testify before Congress and Executive Agencies in furtherance of the trade; perform economic and statistical research on the trade and publish the results; and engage in public relations activities to disseminate information on economic and trade relations between the United States and Japan, all in the interest of Japan.

6. Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act?^{1/} Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

Dissemination of information on U. S.-Japan trade by pamphlets, press releases, statements, letters, and in person to members of the legislative and executive branches, the press, business groups, labor unions, academicians and other interested individuals for the purpose of promoting trade between the United States and Japan, in the interest of Japan.

Dear Mr. Goto:

This is to amend the letter contract dated April 1, 1975 between the United States-Japan Trade Council and the Japan Trade Promotion Office, and as amended on April 30 and May 2, 1975. We are pleased at your decision, as a sustaining and contributing member, to provide the Council with an additional contribution, not to exceed $47,558.00 to be utilized during the remainder of Japanese fiscal year 1975.

These funds will be expended exclusively for the purpose set forth in sub-paragraph (a) of the second paragraph of the original contract, to wit:

"(a) Public relations measures to disseminate widely throughout the United States information on the economic and trade problems of Japan and the United States; . . ."

All other provisions of the original April 1, 1975 contract will remain in effect.

We appreciate this additional financial support and are grateful for the confidence thus expressed in our organization.

Sincerely yours,

Allen Taylor

Dear Mr. Goto:

The United States-Japan Trade Council is pleased that your organization, the Japan Trade Promotion Office, plans to continue as a sustaining and contributing member of our Council. We understand your support will consist of contributions not to exceed $451,185.00 during our current fiscal year (April 1, 1975 to March 31, 1976), provided your financial situation permits such disbursements.

I am glad to confirm that these funds will be administered strictly in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the United States-Japan Trade Council. The United States-Japan Trade Council, and its officers and staff, agree to expend their best efforts in the direction of fostering friendlier trade relations between the two countries. Specifically, we would plan to provide during the fiscal year just beginning the following kinds of services:

- (a) Public relations measures to disseminate widely throughout the United States information on the economic and trade problems of Japan and the United States;
- (b) Observation and reports upon activities of the United States Congress and Executive agencies which may in any way affect the United States-Japan trade;
- (c) Representation of the interests of all parties involved in trade between the two countries and formal presentation of testimony thereon before the United States Congress and Executive agencies;
- (d) Sponsorship of meetings with the press and conferences with other interested persons to discuss the United States-Japan trade and related problems;
- (e) Maintenance of close coordination with other organizations and associations having an interest in liberal United States foreign trade policies generally and in the United States-Japan trade particularly;

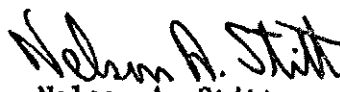

(f) Economic and statistical research on selected problems of significance to the trade between the two countries.

At the termination of the fiscal year (March 31, 1976) we shall present to you an accounting for all funds received and shall return any balance still remaining at that time.

You or any other qualified representative of the Japan Trade Promotion Office, may at any time inspect our Council's activities and accounting records in order to assure that your contributions are expended economically in pursuance of the above-listed objectives.

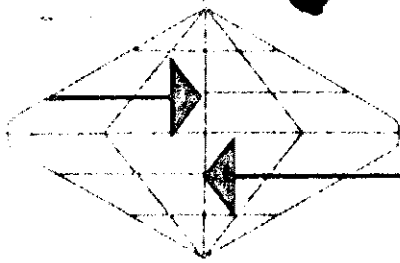

We appreciate the substantial support your organization has been giving the Council and are grateful for the confidence thus expressed in our organization. Recommendations and suggestions as to Council activities are welcome at any time.

Sincerely,
